It will be seen from the reports sent that the Educational officers have carried out the duty imposed on them by the order. As regards revenue officers it is merely stated that publicity has been given to the rule. The communications from the I G of Police are silent as to how far the police have been instrumental in bringing about the due observance of the rule.

As far as it may be gathered from the reports it appears that the rule is well understood and observed in cities and towns

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.J.4839 dated 28th May 1918 enquiring how far the instructions contained in Government Order No.J.384-429/Pol.14-14-1 dated 14th August 1914 regarding the observance of the Rule of the Road are observed, I have the honor to submit herewith in original the reports received from the Deputy Commissioners in the matter.

2. The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, says that the rule is fairly understood and followed in Mysore City but is as often honored in the breach as in the observance in the outlying parts of the District, and he is of opinion that the rule cannot be satisfactorily brought into operation without some penal provisions. The Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore reports that the rule has been widely published throughout the District and is observed by drivers of vehicles and recommends the extension of section 56 clause (b) of the Police Regulation to the whole District. The Deputy Commissioner of Chitaldrug states that the rule is not uniformly observed by drivers and that he has instructed the District Superintendent of Police to have some people prosecuted with a view to enforce the rule more effectively. He has apparently overlooked the fact that no prosecution will lie for driving on the wrong side in the mofussil unless the provisions of section 56 clause (b) of the Mysore Regulations are extended thereto as proposed by the Bangalore Deputy Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner Kolar reports that it will take time for the villagers to be made to observe the rule. The Deputy Commissioner

Hassan District thinks that "the rule of the Road requires some modification as cartmen find it easy to go to the right and bulls cannot be managed by the left hand as horses".

3. Though the rule is well understood and observed in large cities and towns it cannot be said that the villagers, who are ignorant, observe it with the same degree of strictness in the interior of the country. Since it is reported that due publicity has been given to the rule in all the Districts, it is likely to become well established in the outlying parts of the country in course of time as the villagers become habituated to it.
